"I do not know what your recruitment policy is at Palebeck but you sure manage to recruit the best people - helpful, charming and extremely efficient! Many thanks."

"Having no previous knowledge of Palebeck Telecomms we were eager to take up references, which Palebeck happily supplied. After contacting Klesch & Co, who have been a Palebeck customer since May 1993, we were in no doubt about Palebeck's expertise and proven record in customer care. Palebeck beat off competition from three other suppliers."

AS Group Services

"All of your staff who were dealing with the installation at our house were very helpful and knowledgeable, and I was so impressed that I have requested a quote from your company as we are thinking of installing a new telephone system at our office"

25 years as London's Premier Panasonic Telecoms Dealer

London's leading Panasonic dealer for more than 25 years. Trusted by trade and retail alike, Palebeck is one of the few telecom dealers to have focused on Panasonic network solutions over the years and has reaped the success this leading brand brings.

Situated close to Oxford Circus, we are best able to concentrate on what we are great at, supporting and maintaining local business.

With most of our engineers coming to us directly from the manufacturer, we have become the natural choice for Panasonic systems within the M25.
